Who's That Knocking?
(The Innkeeper's Song)

The Innkeeper just wanted to get some rest, but so many people came knocking on his door that amazing night…

D A7 D
Who's that knocking on the door? (Knock knock)
Who's that knocking on the door? (Knock knock)
G D
We've got no room, we're full today
A7 D
So turn around and walk away
D A7 D
Who's that knocking on the door? (Knock knock)

G D
There's a girl outside and she looks so tired
A7 D
And her husband says that they need to come inside
D
And a donkey.

D A7 D
Who's that knocking on the door?, ...

There's a thousand angels singing in the sky
There's a crying noise, and a little baby boy
There's a girl outside and she looks so tired
And her husband says that they need to come inside
And a donkey.
Who's that knocking on the door?, ...

You can smell the sheep, two hundred deep
And the shepherds standing at the stable door
There's a thousand angels singing in the sky
There's a crying noise, and a little baby boy
There's a girl outside and she looks so tired
And her husband says that they need to come inside
And a donkey.
Who's that knocking on the door?, ...

With frankincense and myrrh and gold
Three wise old men are knocking at my door
You can smell the sheep, two hundred deep
And the shepherds standing at the stable door
There's a thousand angels singing in the sky
There's a crying noise, and a little baby boy
There's a girl outside and she looks so tired
And her husband says that they need to come inside
And a donkey.

John C Martin 12/09/02